Where Thousands Perished in Smyrna Disaster

On the quays of Smyrna, shown here, thousands of refugees perished, caught between the sea and a wall of flame as Smyrna burned after its occupation by the Turkish army. American and allied destroyers were unable to give aid, being already crammed with refugees. The number of dead has been placed at 120,000, though accurate figures are not available.

TURKS AGAIN INVADE NEUTRAL ZONE; BRITISH GIVE 48 HOUR QUIT NOTICE

For the second time the Turks are reported to have moved into neutral territory in the Dardanelles vicinity A few days ago such an advance wa made but the Turks withdrew on representations made by the British commander in charge of the neutral zone This movement was said to be due to a misunderstanding and little significance was attached to it

The Allied admirals have notified the Kemalist forces making the advance on the straits in the neutral zone that they must fall back to their original position It is understood that the notification is in the form of an ultimatum and that the Turks have been given forty-eight hours in which to withdraw machine gun units and cavalry In case the withdrawal is not begun before the expiration of the time limit, the British will move on the Kemalists

From Constantinople it is report I that the British march on Krenkeru, a position ten miles south of Chanak the regular British base, has already started The destination of the British is believed to be Kusukeui which is seven miles south of Chanak and three miles north of Krenkeru, to which the Turks have advanced The British purpose is to take up a position at Kusukeui where they could cross fire on any further advance of the Turks

The civilian population of the area under dispute has been notified by the British authorities to evacuate for their own safety

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE HIS EYE INJURED BADLY

While standing along the roadside at Fairview Saturday evening, Mike Benish, 18 years old whose home is Osceola Mills, was struck by an automobile and his left eye hurt badly He was brought to the Cottage State hospital.

EXCURIONIST JUST FIFTY YEARS LATE GETTING HIS TRAIN

Oil City P Sept 26(U P)—Though you are always missing your train do not think that you hold the record Elias James would be excursionist to Pittsburgh sought transportation on a train that left fifty years ago

'Wh t are your excursion rates to Pittsburgh' h asked the agent

"We have no excursion to Pittsburgh today, was the reply

'Os, yes you have I saw it advertised and have the paper right here'

The puzzled ticket salesman asked to see the paper and found the following under the heading 'Fifty Years Ago'

An excursion will be run today to Pittsburgh over the Allegheny Railroad to enable patrons to view the full exhibition

WITNESSED DOUBLE EXECUTION

Lieutenant Joel B Ivey was one of Pitts w penitentiary early yesterday morning having been summoned to witness to a double execution two convicted murderers having been called upon to meet death in the electric chair

If the great State of Pennsylvania should set itself up as the official executioner of two men undoubtedly more or less defective mentally, in this enlightened age is certainly to be regretted

Mr Ivey said the executions were mechanically perfect and were carried out without a hitch

Transporting Live Bears From Potter Co. Is Work Of Game Commission

Harrisburg, Pa, Sept 26—(U P)—The transfer of live bears from Potter County, where there are too many, to other sections of the state where there are not enough for game purposes, is being developed by the Game Commission more extensively this year than ever before

Already this season 15 bears have been trapped in Potter County and "planted" in regions comprising Westmoreland, Bedford Cambria Plain, Somerset, Franklin, Adams and Cumberland counties

A double purpose is sought in these transfers—to relieve the dense bear population of Potter County and to stock other sections of the state for game purposes At present a hunter may kill only one bear a season except in Potter, where there is no limit to his bag

The bears to be transferred are caught in log pen traps, crated, shipped to their new home and turned loose One recently freed from his shipping crate in the South Mountain section deserted for forest depth with such dispatch that photographers were unable even to snap a picture of his flight

Private trappers in Potter County who trap a live bear are paid $25 by the Game Commission

CABINET WRESTLES WITH PROBLEM OF BRITISH VESSELS

Washington D C Sept 26—Efforts to work out some co ordinated plan for the searching of British vessels suspected to carrying rum was the task mapped out for the cabinet and President Harding today The Cabinet was to be unofficially notified of the British attitude

Eight Million Young Trees Are Growing In State Nursery Here

Harrisburg Pa, Sept 25—District Forester Dague of Clearfield, has reported to the Department of Forestry that an inventory of the Clearfield nursery this week showed that it contained very nearly 8,000,00 young trees This is the first year since 1918 that the nursery has been fully stocked Scarcity in obtaining forest tree seeds during the war accounted for the shortage in seedlings for the past few years

During the last two years the demand by private planters for tree seedlings for planting has increased and has overrun the supply but it is expected that the Department of Forestry will in a few years be able to supply all the stock needed The Clearfield nursery will be enlarged to almost double its present capacity

BAND WILL APPEAR WITH MANY NEW INNOVATIONS DURING COUNTY FAIR

One has to go some to keep track of the innovations always being "sprung" by our American Legion Band Every time they appear on the street thereis something new to attest to their progressiveness For the Fair, at which they will appear daily, they will for the first time in Clearfield display their battery of trumpets These instruments built like a cornet but with a five foot shank and an oriental air to the appearance of the band and add to the effect of the march wonderfully A brand new Sousaphone one of those big bass horns which the performer winds about his body boa constrictor like, is also here for the big Fair

But the best is yet to come and in this another of Clearfields most public spirited men has had a part The band boys felt that they needed a new [illegible] showy baton for the drum major the fellow who leads the parade and they searched through the catalogs until they found a wonderful creation in blue and gold with silker tassels and gold braid An order was placed with Bill Sheeder of Sheeder's Music House and the baton arrived in time for presentation to the band at a meeting Mr Sheeder appeared [illegible] in the midst of the band's practice and in a neat little speech presented it to the band with [illegible] he refusing to accept a cent for the [illegible] asked only a place

FAIR OPENS WITH EVERY BOOTH AND STALL HOUSING BEST OF EXHIBITS

Although Livestock Pens Have Been Doubled, Farmers Have Added Much More to Exhibits.

WEATHER IS FINE

The management of Clearfield's Big Fair have been contending ever since they began preparing for same that the 1922 exhibition would be by far the largest and most successful fair in the history of the present Fair Association Everybody who visited the Fair grounds today is convinced they new what they were talking about when they made this prediction One and all are loudly voicing the opinion that this fair is the best ever

The last couple of fairs found the exhibition buildings, stock and cattle beds too small to accommodate the exhibits offered and to guard against such condition this year, such quarters were more than doubled and one idea of the manner in which Clearfield county farmers have responded to the invitation to exhibit their stock and produce will be gained when it is learned that this morning found every nook and corner of every exhibition building or stall at the fair housing a worth-while exhibit of some desirable kind or other, while many entries had to be turned away for lack of room

The exhibits are really wonderful and are a revelation to the uninitiated as to the great advance of agriculture and stock raising in Clearfield county

A visit to this section of the fair is well worth while and there is a constant stream of visitors to and from the live stock sections The poultry exhibit also swamped the superintendent in charge, the greatly enlarged building being entirely inadequate to take care of the entries offered while many disappointed chicken fanciers were forced to return their exhibits to their pens for lack of room

The horse races should also prove to be the best ever as the entry list was never equalled here before, which will bring an exceptionally large number of starters in every event

The Clearfield American Legion and Clearfield Italian bands are furnishing the music today Lieut Emery put his airplane thru its paces Sam Spencer's shows are accommodating record crowds and there is something doing for everybody all the time

There will be a band concert, fire works and other music during the evening

HUNTERS SHOULD KEEP POSTED ON SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Harrisburg, Pa, Sept 26 (U P)—A printed statement giving the official time of sunrise and sunset during the hunting season was sent today to all game officials and organizations by the Game Commission

Under the provisions of the game laws, it is unlawful to hunt for or shoot at game of any kinds except raccoons between sunset and sunrise The statement was sent out to assist game protectors and hunters alike in determining the exact time of the sun's advent and departure on any given day

The swift shortening of the length of the hunting day as the season progresses is shown in the times at fortnightly intervals given here

BIG FOREST FIRE IS SPREADING TOWARD CROOKED RUN CAMP

The forest fire continues to rage in the Knobs and Chestnut Ridge country It is spreading toward main Trout Run in the Crooked Run section and daily making rapid headway despite the valiant efforts to combat it being made by State Forester Dague and the sixty men working under his direction

A delegation of thirty High School students were hauled out to the fire zone in motor trucks last evening and reinforced the men already on the fire line They are still on the job today and are giving a good account of themselves

The fire fighters are seriously handicapped by the fact that about all the mountain runs are dry and there is very little water available anywhere with which to combat the flames

More men will have to be secured by this evening and wholesale subpoenaing of experienced fire fighters will likely be resorted to

JUDGES ARE GUESTS OF COMMERCIALITES; BOTH MAKE TALKS

The Commercial Club members heard a number of interesting reports from important committees last evening and were particularly pleased at the work of the sign board committee which has succeeded in having signs erected along the State road running through Clearfield directing traffic through the town in both directions

In addition to a fine dinner, the Club enjoyed a pleasant hour of fellowship in discussing with one another as they sat at the table a great many things of community interest

The evening came to a close with a very entertaining and worth while address by Judge Reed of Cambria county, who, with Judge Bell, was club guests Judge Reed and Judge Bell both were given the privilege of the floor and made very interesting talks

Pearl Bahmei, 15, (above) who with Raymond Schneider, 19, found the murdered bodies of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, choir singer at New Brunswick, N J has been questioned by authorities and detained in custody Schneider also has been questioned and ordered to return for further questioning

Mrs. Mills Compared Her Love For Rector And Her Husband, Neighbor Says

New Brunswick, N. J., Sept. 26—"I care more for Mr. Hall's little finger than I do for your whole body" This is what the late Mrs Eleanor Mills told her husband in the presence of a neighbor woman some time ago when Mr Mills took his wife to task for giving so much of her time to the church and spending so much time in the company of the slain rector This statement was made by Mrs Jane Opie, a neighbor of Mrs. Mills

"I was sitting in the Mills home one evening when Mrs Mills came in Her husband asked her where she had been "I have been to the church," replied Mrs Mills "To church, eh? It seems to me you care more for the church and Rev Hall than you do for me," said Mr Mills To this Mrs Mills replied, "I care more for Mr Halls' little finger than I do for your whole body"

Man Seriously Hurt In Automobile Wreck At DuBois Unidentified

On Sunday evening last a Ford car occupied by two young men was struck by a trolley car at the B & S crossing at DuBois The Ford was badly smashed up and one of the occupants so seriously injured he has since been unable to give an account of himself

In speaking of the affair the DuBois Courier this morning says:

The identity of the persons injured when their Ford overturned at the B & S crossing Sunday evening remains a mystery. The one young man at the hospital still remains in state of coma and cannot divulge his identity, while the other occupant of the car has disappeared.

The badly injured man remains semi-conscious and several X-rays have been taken to ascertain the extent of the injury to his head. It is believed that he has a fractured skull

Trolley officials, who investigated the accident, declare the car that struck the wrecked machine, plowed into the machine after the occupants had been removed and that any injuries suffered by them were not inflicted by the street car

Mr and Mrs W E Mather have returned from visiting in Chicago, Ill and Milwaukee, Wis

TOM WATSON, U. S. SENATOR FROM GA., DIES OF ASTHMA

Washington, D C., Sept. 26.—United States Senator Tom Watson of Georgia died suddenly at his home here early this morning. Acute asthma, from which he had been a sufferer for several years, was the cause of his death. He had a severe attack of the malady a week ago but had recovered sufficiently to attend the final session of the Senate last Friday and although advised by his physicians to be quiet, he insisted that he was feeling fine. Last night he ate a hearty dinner and apparently was in better health than for a long time, but a recurrence of the malady attacked him and he died at 2 40 a. m today

Funeral arrangements have not been completed but the late senator's funeral will be held at Thompson, Georgia, where Mrs. Watson went some time ago.

Senator Watson was sixty six years old.

Auto Accident At Montgomery Bridge Is Fully Explained

The DuBois Courier carried a story yesterday morning concerning an auto smash-up near Hyde City late Saturday night in which a truck driven by Dudley Powell of Clearfield, and a Jordan car driven by Charles Kline and occupied by Coach Treadwell and a bunch of DuBois High School football players figured.

The DuBois story naturally took care of the DuBois end of it, but it failed to detail the correct story of the affair. Mr. Powell was coming down the State road toward Clearfield, while the other car was traveling in the direction of DuBois. Two cars were parked along the right hand side of the road just beyond the Montgomery bridge and in swinging out to pass these cars the Jordan car hit Mr Powell's truck and bouncing off continued on its way for nearly two hundred feet before its driver was able to stop it The engine of the truck was stalled by the force of the blow when the DuBois car hit it and didn't travel over six feet following the smash. No particular damage was done.

PENNSYLVANIA'S NEXT GOVERNOR WILL VISIT CLEARFIELD SURE THIS WEEK

M'SPARRAN WILL PROVE VERSATILE

Hon John A McSparran, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, will be a visitor to Clearfield tomorrow He will be met by a committee of local Democratic leaders at Tyrone in the morning and brought over the mountains by automobile.

Candidate McSparran is scheduled to adddress the fair crowd during the afternoon. Mr. McSparran is a versatile chap In addition to being head of the Pennsylvania State Grange, he is a real "dirt farmer" and also finds time at times to preach the Gospel, as he is also a lay preacher of the Methodist Episcopal church

In addition to Mr McSparran, Robert E Pattison, Jr, son of the one Democrat who was twice elected Governor of rock ribbed Republican Pennsylvania, United States Senator candidate Fred B Kerr, Congress candidate, Hon J Frank Snyder, Candidate for State Senator William I Betts and Legislative candidates Alex McMullen and W Haley Betts will also be in the party of campaigners

Miss Hazel Nolph of Punxsutawney has returned to her home after spending a few days with Mrs Lee Solt, of the Leonard Hotel.

PINCHOT SPEAKS FROM THE SHOULDER

Gifford Pinchot, the man who by his dominant personality and forceful methods of appealing directly to the people, swept the political decks of this State clean last spring, will be a Clearfield visitor Friday morning at ten o'cock at which time he will speak from the Court House steps In his party will be the candidates for other State offices, Col. David J Davis for Lieutenant Governor, United States Senator Major David Reed, Hon Wm. I. Swoope for Congress, Hon. H B. Scott for State Senator, Hon Charles B. Jones, and Hon D D Miller for Assembly.

There is little need to dwell on Pinchot as an audience getter. He had a great one at the primaries and everybody who voted for him then will want to see him and hear him. As for Swoope, Scott and Jones, each one of these gentlemen made strong campaigns for nominations at the hands of the Republican party against able and popular opponents and Republicans admire their grit.

Do not forget the hour—ten o'clock on Friday morning. Kill two birds with one stone Get acquainted on Friday morning with your next State officers and see the Fair in the afternoon. Remember that the races are just as fast and furious on the last day as on the big day.

TRINITY HEARS OF PROGRESS MADE TOWARDS BUILDING OF PARISH HOUSE

By Rev. Dr. Horace Lincoln Jacobs.

Wednesday, Sept. 27, 8 p. m. the corporation of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, of which every Trinity Church member is a legal unit, is to meet in the interest of the Parish House. This movement has been greatly advanced by a recent revised provision for the construction of the building, in amount to $33,000 which has been made by a public spirited citizen of Clearfield. Sunday morning in the public congregation Secretary A. H. Woodward of the board of trustees presented the entire movement in an illuminating address.

The very noble, generous gift, which comes from Mr. Asbury W. Lee is paralleled by his clear grasp of the needs of this Community and the church, honored and beloved by his father in the years of his early vigorous itinerancy. To conceive of service by such an institution, contributing definitely to every part of every man, is proof of a serious study of the conditions under which the largest help can be afforded to people, especially the young. Then to think out those conditions in the terms of dollars that run into thousand, is evidence of living out great convictions, and not of having mere impulses. While the Church and the Methodist community associated in not only the three Pastoral charges of this town, but of the entire county, shall be highly advantaged by the opportunities and services that this parish house will furnish, there must be a very peculiar sense of gratification to the donor in his relation to the ministries and activities that will center for years to come in that parish house and emenate from it to the Methodist people of Clearfield county and indirectly to the entire community.

The Rally Day events were of unusual interest and promise. With an attendance of 640 first count an offering of $77.75 and musical features by School and enlarged orchestra, the School was ready to enjoy teh exercises presented by 27 scholars graduating from the Primary department. Songs, Bible tests, alphabet Scripture verses were well rendered. Diplomas were presented by the Superintendent, Miss Carrie Powell. Superintendent Arnold gave the word of welcome and promotion, the pastor adding the announcement of Bible rewards. Mrs. Charles H McDowell reported the number on Cradle Roll at 155, which heartened the School. Forty-four years ago the review Sunday in September fell on the 24th, the records of the School showed on that day an attendance of 78 with one new scholar and 70c in the offering. Of those 78 present then ten reported present yesterday.

Miss Josephine McMurray had charge of the presentation of the Woman that Dared—Queen Esther by 20 scholars. Miss Maude Powell's class was responsible for the decorations which were beautiful, and the program.

Both morning and evening congregations showed marked gains in attendance and interest, the number of strangers and commerical travelers was exceptionally large. The exposition of Psalm 87:5 was turned in its application to the task of Trinity and its opportunity for enlarged equipment to serve every man full rounded and the Methodist community through the parish house. At night from Rev. 2-7-9 the subject of the Massacre at Smyrna was run into the study of the Mohammedan movement through history and the present objective as revealed by purposes manifest in former Saracen conquests. People were in the audience that have visited Smyrna and Asia Minor.

This week's events. Monday, parsonage, League cabinet: Mrs. Leonardson's home, lady members in group of I. J. K. and L family names. Wednesday, service starts 7:30, merging into corporation meeting, 8 p. m. Firday, 4 p. m. Junior League. Through October Sunday nights, special sermons for young people.

Mistral Has Its Uses.

The mistral is a chilling wind which sweeps down from the central plateau of France to the Mediterranean. It dries up the muddy morasses and the unsanitary vapors connected therewith.

Needed at Home.

Little four year old Gerald Ives next door to a woman who owns a big Scotch collie. The dog's name is Prince. One day, Gerald, hearing his neighbor call Prince, helped her look for the dog but was unable to find him. An hour later Gerald saw Prince. Running to the dog he cried: "Go home, Prince, 'cause your mamma wants you."

Do Right Always.

Do right though pain and shame be thy lot. Thy heart will cheer thee when the pain's forgot. Do wrong for pleasure's sake, then count thy gains. The pleasure soon departs; the sin remains.—Bishop Shuttleworth.

After much discussion of bloomers, pro and con, a satisfactory compromise has been reached in the bloomer dress. These costumes are beginning to appear in jersey and homespun. The bloomers match the dress.

Thousands of dollars are reclaimed each year by London companies who do nothing, but take over millions of tons of waste, gathered in every nook and corner of the great city of London. PUNXY FURNACE RESUMES

Punxsutawney, Pa., Sept 25. (U. P.) After 19 months of silence the Punxsutawney Furnace Company resumed operations here today. An attempt was made last fall to reopen the works, but the men were unwilling to accept the wage offered. Several hundred men are employed in this industry.

FELL DOWN CELLAR STEPS FRACTURED BOTH ARMS

Mrs. Cora Holton, wife of William Holton, of the office staff of the Morrisdale Coal Company, fell down the cellar steps at the Holton residence at Morrisdale Saturday evening and fractured both of her arms. She is receiving treatment at the Cottage State hospital.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY

FAIR NEWS

: ISSUED EVERY DAY BY THE CLEARFIELD COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION :

CLEARFIELD COUNTY'S GREATEST FAIR OPENED TODAY

There will be a carload of laughs for the Fair Patrons tomorrow afternoon when the greased pig is turned loose between the 2:17 pace and the 2:18 trot. The good husky eight-weeks-old porker will be first thoroughly greased with the slipperiest kind of grease and turned loose to give its best efforts in evading the crowd that is expected to be pursuing it in the oval.

Chances are about even. The porker is a husky one, the chasers will labor under no restrictions. No holds are barred and all that is required by the management is that the piggie be held for a reasonable length of time.

If you haven't laughed for a year, this should at least cause a smile.

Ex-Lieut. Emery arrived this morning and did some stunt flying over the grounds and city this afternoon. Tomorrow he will give some thrilling stunt flying and Burton Jones will give a wing-walking exhibition during the afternoon.

Lovers of harness racing were certainly given their money's worth in the two races that were staged this afternoon. Tomorrow afternoon the 2:17 pace and the 2:18 trot will be staged. The track is fast and the weather is ideal for fast time.

There are several rival stables represented at the Fair and they are racing to win the money. As we have said before, the purse for each race is high enough to attract the best racing talent of the entire section of the country. The races just closed at Apollo, Pa., where some new records were hung out, have furnished a lot of good horseflesh for our Fair on account of the short trip.

The Baby Contest started with a bang and tomorrow the "weighing in" and the assignment of competition numbers will be carried on in the Rest Room under the supervision of the Red Cross. The weighing in starts at 9 and ends at 11 tomorrow morning.

Never before in the history of the fifty-one years of the Clearfield County Fair has there been such interest shown in the exhibition of cattle, sheep and swine. Every one of the commodious new stalls has been taken and the animals on display are evoking high praise from the crowds that visited the stalls this afternoon. The poultry exhibit is of exceptional merit and every inch of available space is taken up with the best the county produces.

The Curwensville American Legion Band will give a concert from the big stand in the grove tomorrow afternoon, while the Clearfield American Legion Band is playing from the new band stand in the oval facing the grand stand. The Clearfield American Legion Band will give a concert tomorrow evening in the grove band stand starting at 7:30, which will be followed by fireworks.

The Spencer Shows are going full tilt and every attraction is getting its share of favor. The attraction that seems very popular is the athletic show, where boxing bouts and wrestling bouts are being staged every few minutes. The management of the show requests that anyone who would like to try grapples with their wrestler may have that privilege and wishes the local talent to come forward. The wrestling is clean and fair and not of the usual laugh-making kind.

On the ball diamond, facing the grand stand, Penn State workers have erected a huge banner and are giving their two million campaign a great boost. This banner will be lighted at night and will have its message ready for the night patrons.

Costs Nothing To Play

It's the most interesting, educating, fun-producing and profitable game ever attempted. It doesn't cost you one single penny to participate and yet you may win a handsome prize. Absolutely, we are positive you will find it the most fascinating game you have ever tried and are sure you will be exceedingly thankful to The Harrisburg Telegraph for so generously offering it's readers and friends such a grand opportunity to play, earn and learn. Get started tonight friend—you won't go amiss.

HERE'S THE WAY TO WIN $1000

It costs nothing to take part, and you don't have to send in a single subscription to win a prize. In this event, if your list of "B-Words" is awarded First Prize, you will receive $50, and it should also be borne in mind a list with no accompanying subscriptions will receive the same consideration as those that do. However, if you wish to play for the larger prizes, you may do so in the following manner.

If your answer is awarded First Prize and you have sent in one $5.00 yearly subscription, payable in advance, or two $3.00 yearly R. F. D. mail subscriptions, payable in advance (new or renewal), you will receive $350, as shown in the second column of figures—BUT NOW COMES THE GRANDEST OF ALL OFFERS.

If your answer is awarded First Prize and you have sent in two $5.00 yearly subscriptions, payable in advance, or one $5.00 yearly subscription and two $3.00 yearly R. F. D. mail subscriptions, payable in advance (all either new or renewals), you will receive $1,000 in good cold American Cash.

THINK OF IT—a real young fortune for practically nothing. Your own subscription (new or renewal) will count for one, and we will take subscriptions to start at any future date. When remitting, give full instructions on a separate sheet of paper from that containing your answer.

OBSERVE THESE SIMPLE RULES

1. This game is open to every man, woman and child who is not an employe of The Harrisburg Telegraph or a member of an employe's family.
2. Answers must be mailed on or before October 21st, 1922.
3. Prizes will be awarded for the largest and nearest correct lists of names of visible objects beginning with letter "B" submitted, computed on a basis of one merit mark for each correct word, and one demerit mark deducted for each error and omission. Handwriting, neatness, etc., will not be counted for or against a contestant.
4. Write on one side of paper, number each word consecutively as for instance, 1, 2, 3,—write full name on each page.
5. Do not use hyphenated, compound or obsolete words or words made up of two or more complete English words. Use singular or plural, but not both.
6. Words of the same spelling can be used only once. One object can be named only once, but if the same object appears several times in the picture and synonyms of a different spelling beginning with letter "B" can be found that will apply to each, they may be used. A whole object and any part thereof may be named.
7. One prize will be awarded to only one individual or group.
8. In the event of ties, the full amount of the tied prize will be paid to each participant.
9. Three judges having no connection with The Harrisburg Telegraph, using Webster's New International Dictionary as their guide in determining correct and incorrect words will meet at the close of the game to award the prizes and announcement of the winners will be made in The Harrisburg Telegraph as soon thereafter as possible. Each and every person participating in this game absolutely and without any reservations whatsoever, agrees to be guided by the decisions of the Judges as final and conclusive.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

During the "dry spell," it is said that special notice has been served by the Clearfield Water Company on all local "moonshiners" and "home brewers" to lay off on manufacturing as the drain on the local water supply is too strenuous. They promised to be one hundred per cent. patriotic. That is the entire one hundred promised to obey the request.

Every American family will pay an average of $160 a year more for clothes, food and other necessities because of the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill, Treasury experts said today. Although the total cost of living will be increased by $4,000,000,000, the bill carries a new provision authorizing the President to increase the rates 50 per cent. if he desires.

Of the total protection of $6,500,000,000, only $230,000,000 will be paid into the treasury and the rest will go to the favored interests, according to the experts.

The following is the estimated amount of protection on principal products:

Cement, pottery, chinaware, $214,000,000; steel and other metals, $1,148,000,000; wood, furniture, lumber, $297,000,000; sugar, confectionery, $333,000,000; tobacco, $429,000,000; food, agricultural products, $1,233,000,000; cotton goods, $807,000,000; wool clothing, $760,000,000; silk and silk goods, $326,000,000.

Fires in the United States during the past forty years consumed about eight billions of dollars worth of property. If a sum of money equal to each annual loss by fire had been invested at 6 per cent. compound interest at the time of the loss, it would now be sufficient to wipe out our present national debt of $25,000,000,000.

Rev. Thomas W. Young, 76 years of age, recently fired as chaplain at the Western Penitentiary at Rockview, Centre county, because, he says, he protested against the inmates being compelled to work on Sunday, claims to see the near approach of the millenium in a prophecy with which he closes his statement concerning the manner of his dismissal. The aged minister says:—"I will make this prophecy—that in twenty years from now there will be no prisons. The world is undergoing a reformation and matters will become worse. We are losing our relation to God and forgetting Him. That is why there are so many strikes and troubles. The worst is yet to come. During the period from 1928 to 1936 will be the worst. Then there will be lasting peace and a new order."

"If you wish distraction from the cares of earth, think of this:

Before a recent meeting of a fron-omers in Santa Fe, N. M., pictures were screened of floating masses of incandescent gas containing matter enough to condense into 10,000 suns, each the possible center of a universe as large as our own.

Their distance was reckoned at one million light years. A light year means the time required for a ray of light tarveling at 186,324 miles per second to speed for 31,558,149 seconds.

Figure that, multiply by a million, then try to imagine a space so far distant where worlds like our own may be forming beyond our power to count.

Of course you can't do it. But the effort may temporarily reduce your feeling of self-importance."

The death of Tom Watson removes a character from the United States Senate and the service will not be any worse off. Watson devoted his energies late in life to an un-American purpose, that of creating race hatred, religious prejudice and suspicion of all organized effort. Rarely did he ever make good on his blatant charges. He fronted on the passions of people who he could play with his inflammatory speeches and writings and never was held accountable to the law for his wild rantings. We admire a man of strong convictions and give him the right to his convictions but have a right to deny him the use of the unfair and untruthful methods employed by Tom Watson.

Pike Township must have a progressive board of school directors. They have employed a township supervisor of schools whose duty it will be to oversee the business of manufacturing eighth grade graduates. Township supervision is not a new idea and a little bit of business judgment will show anybody that it is correct in principle. This man, if given a fair trial, and by that we mean he should be given full authority and co-operation, will save the cost of his salary in school supplies alone.

Unfortunately there will be citizens who will look at the cost of his salary and think that just that much is to be added to the school bill. This need not be so and will not be so as experience in other districts has demonstrated.

The writer, who was a school director in Indiana County at one time, knows from experience what can be accomplished by a township school supervisor. He also knows what great mistakes the average board of school directors make in the selection of books and supplies. Reliance on a township supervisor will eliminate the buying of useless text books and unsuitable supplies.

School districts running from ten to forty individual school plants are the only employers in the country today who do not have working foremen and superintendents to instill principles of efficiency and co-ordination in their business.

Speaking of Tom Watson and his various attempts to stir up religious strife in the South it is timely to call attention to a few Tom Watsons in our midst at the present time who are seeking to take a political advantage in certain districts. There is no more despicable trick in modern politics than to prey on the prejudices of the voter by denominational inferences.

Our State Superintendent of Public Instruction is Dr. Thomas E. Finnegan. Political opponents of the administration are calling his comprehensive educational plan "Finneganism." The purpose is all too plain. These Tom Watsons would have the anti-Catholic voter believe that Finnegan is a Catholic, and if there is anything in a name, he ought to be, but he is not.

The Progress will have some more to say about "Finneganism" after the political opponents of a non-political school organization have said all they can say.

Now is the time to eat apples. The fruit is never better and more wholesome than at this time of year, and it is comparatively cheap. Also lay in your supply quick. There are not as many apples as you would imagine. Crop reports show the crop only fifty-eight per cent of normal. Buy them now while they are lowest.

Farmers having some land that could be planted in orchards would do well to heed the signs of the times as revealed by figures showing the consumption of apples in such cities as Philadelphia. Philadelphia had shipped to her people last year 3,416 carloads of apples. Where did they come from? It is lamentably true that only 217 carloads came from this state. New York state shipped 1,208 carloads to Philadelphia. Thus it will be seen that Pennsylvania apple growers are not beginning to supply their own state.

A few other items of interest are dug up by Secretary Fred Rasmussen of the state department of agriculture.

Philadelphia used 1,962 carloads of cabbage. Pennsylvania truck growers furnished only 18 carloads of this great amount. Potatoes 7,460 carloads. Pennsylvania furnished only 2,046.

The same is true of many other products of the farm. Can we too, not do it on a large scale, and by proper market conditions, sell the product to Philadelphia and other cities that must go out of the state for their supply? We can.

Bringing the Dead to Life.

Many apparently dead persons have been resuscitated by injecting into the heart one cubic centimeter of a 1 in 1,000 solution of either adrenalin or pituitrin; the injection is made into the left intercostal space one or two finger breadths to the left of the sternal border.—Scientific American.

Simple China Cement.

To mend china or glassware, make a very thick solution of gum arabi and stir into it paster of paris until the mixture is of proper consistency. About one ounce each is about the proper quantity to use. Apply with a brush to the broken edges, press together, tie into position and leave for a few days when it will be perfect firm. This makes a white cement.

Early Dabblers in Dentistry.

The first physician to speak of treating the teeth is Galen (131-200 A. D.) The science of dentistry, however, may be said to date from 1839, when Prof. Richard Newton pointed out "the organic connection between the vascular and the vital soft parts of the frame and the hard substance of the teeth." His work appeared in 1840-1845.

HOW TO KEEP YOUR BABY WELL

A Weekly Talk To Mothers Issued Through The Babies' Prophylactic Clinic, Henry Phipps Institution, 7th and Lombard Streets,

VACCINATION

Every baby should be vaccinated preferably between the third and fourth month of life, provided he is vigorous and healthy. Some physicians prefer to vaccinate at a later date. It is better to have the baby vaccinated in the spring and autumn unless he had been exposed to small pox, in which-case he should be vaccinated immediately.

Vaccination is the one sure means of protection against small-pox. Just how long a single vaccination protects a person from getting the disease, it is hard to say. So be on the safe side, the child that was vaccinated during infancy, should again be vaccinated on entering school.

Vaccination is practically harmless The occasional accidents that arise are not due to the vaccination itself but invariably to the lack of care of the vaccination wound.

Of course there is some discomfort experienced by babies while the vaccination "is taking." They may have fever, which at times is high. Other symptoms may be restlessness, fretfulness, loss of appetite, and even vomiting.

No doubt many people wonder why vaccination is still used to protect against small pox when small-pox is hardly ever present. The reason for this is that compulusory vaccination has completely eliminated this disease,which formerly caused thousands of deaths a year. But where small-pox has been eradicated and vaccination has been more or less discontinued, fresh attacks of the disease occur. While no statistics are furnished in these articles, this statement is founded on absolute fact.

Considerable propaganda is brought to the attention of mothers with regard to the dangers and usefulness of vaccination. Horrible and exaggerated examples are given to terrify them. In every case after careful and honest investigation by unprejudiced people these stories have been found to be untrue.

It must be remembered that small-nox is almost a disease of the past where compulsory vaccination is present, but without vaccination it is an ever present enace.

Court Notes

Dr. Mitchell, a Mahaffey "tooth sporter," was convicted by a jury in Judge Bell's court yesterday of operating a motor vehicle on the streets of the Chest Creek capital, while under the influence of liquor.

Vesper Cowie of DuBois, was placed on trial before Judge Reed in Friday afternoon charged with assault and battery and attempt to rape. The complaining witness is a fifteen-year-old DuBois girl named Turner. Cowie is being prosecuted by District Attorney Arnold, while Messrs. Gleason and Woodward have charge of the defense.

A PERFECT GIRL

What Scouting Did for Helen Simpson.

New York, Sept. 26.—The most perfect girl of 178 in the Girls High School of Brooklyn is a Girl Scout. She is Miss Helen Simpson of 1190 Bushwick avenue, Brooklyn.

"My experience as a Girl Scout has been of great aid in building up my body," said Miss Simpson after the examination in which she was picked as the most perfect specimen of girlhood in her class. "Happiness, however, has had much to do with it. I have always preferred an outdoor to a social success, and such dancing as I have done was to develop grace."

Miss Simpson is sixteen. She is 62 inches tall and weighs 112 pounds. Her chest measures 33 inches, her waist 27 inches, her hips 37 inches, her calf 14 inches and her biceps 11¼ inches; her chest expanded is 35½ inches.

Before Miss Simpson was picked as the "Health Girl," she was made to undergo a most rigid test. She was the only girl not disqualified during the examinations.

The young woman sleeps with her bedroom windows wide open, Girl Scout fashion, takes plenty of outdoor exercise each day, observes regular hours, disdains tea and coffee and eats little candy. She does not try to excel in sports but is good at swimming, basket ball and the like. Her favorite exercise is bicycle riding.

FALSE SWEARING ON BOUNTY CLAIMS BRINGS STIFF TERM.

Five Other Reasons That Recommend Prompt Decision

1. Price Reduction
2. Terms
3. Service
4. Value
5. Solves the Problem

1 The radical price reduction by the manufacturer, to bed rock, made possible by reduced labor, and material costs, and the outlook for increased volume, has been passed on to you. Prices today are lowest for this year. Having passed the low point we now see advancing tendency of steel and iron, so that there is no question, we believe, but that the purchase price today indicates the possibility and even probability, of advance later.

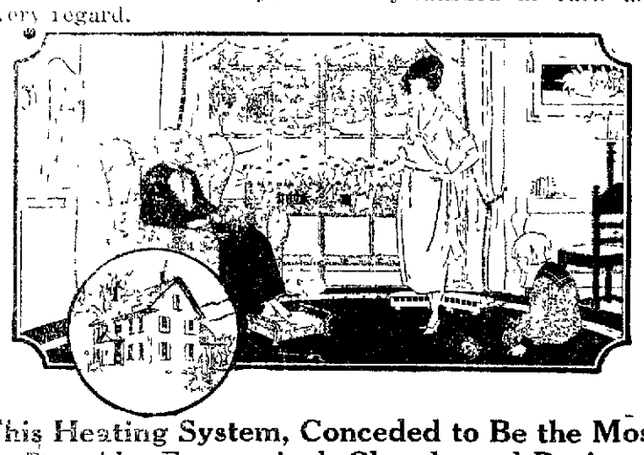
2 We are prepared to offer you extended payment terms [illegible] will not materially interfere with your present money [illegible]

3 [illegible] of the year our workmen can give more [illegible] attention to an installation than they can later when every hour is crowded—this without added expense [illegible]

4 It immediately increases the value of your property more than the amount invested in the purchase, for having made [illegible] thoroughly modern, it has a higher resale value whether you desire to dispose of it or not.

5 To have solved for the next generation or more this everyday question of the healthful, cleanly, economical, comfortable, and convenient heating of homes will happily relieve your mind of this moral responsibility.

Kindly remember we are suggesting investigation—not request decision—until you are fully satisfied in each and every regard.



This Heating System, Conceded to Be the Most Durable, Economical, Cleanly and Desirable, Is Fully Guaranteed

Economy
Durability
Convenience
Cleanliness
Round Oak Folks
Dowagiac

With a responsibility of more than three million dollars, The Beckwith Company—Round Oak Folks—pledge to you twenty, thirty or more years of supreme service, satisfaction and economy. The advantages in construction must really be seen to be appreciated. It is the one heating system on the market so constructed as to avoid inconvenience, regret, and unnecessary expense in the after years. The reasons why are patented. It has several distinct advantages that will [illegible] we say without hesitation, compliment your intelligence. We guarantee the service and satisfaction rendered.

Helps Safeguard Health and Brings Immediate Comfort Into Your Home

Your heating system directly influences the health, comfort, well-being, and happiness of those near and dear to you more than any other single factor. Is there a single sound reason why it would be not only good business judgment but complimenting your real manhood and womanhood to correct this personal problem once and for all—and to do so immediately? We are putting forth every possible effort to make the possession of one of these simple and attractive to you. Can there possibly be any profit in recognizing the facts and failing to respond immediately? Then plan to do so, quite without obligation what ever.

See Us This Week—Tomorrow, If Possible

Responsibilities of more than Three Million Dollars Recommended

Experience has made clear to each and everyone of us that the best time to investigate a desirable proposition is always "NOW." When you are once decided in your mind that we have laid before you truthfully worded, sound, logical reasons for looking into this matter immediately, that [illegible] responsibility of the manufacturer as well as this organization fully qualifies, you will agree to make this investigation tomorrow, won't you? Thoughtful inquiry and personal attention precede fulfillment of legitimate desires.

Why not make a definite engagement with yourself right now—phone us the hour convenient to you, and we will thank you in advance for the opportunity of laying before you the evidence entire.

Little Draft Man Regulator Free

As a "special extra" we will also give each person who accepts this offer, a $15 "Little Draft Man Regulator."

Dont let your family continue to suffer discomfort and inconvenience or risk sickness—stop wasting valuable fuel up the chimney. Don't you owe it to them at least to INVESTIGATE this offer, that means so much to them and you? Then investigate it—tomorrow! Decide before Saturday night, get all the extra advantages and look forward to more than a generation of comfort in all weather with lower fuel bills and an end to the bother, worry, dirt and dust of your present inefficient method of heating. Plan definitely now to see us tomorrow.

Mrs. Rachael Wiley died yesterday morning at an early hour in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Everett, on Lumber City road. Cancer was the direct cause of her death. She was 81 years of age. Her funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock form the Everett home, Rev. Cameron, pastor of the Baptist church officiating. The body was interred in Ferguson cemetery, Undertaker Doverspike having charge of the body.

Word comes from Warren, Ohio, that Irvin Leech had suffered a paralytic stroke shortly after his return home from this place a few weeks ago. During his visit here he was compelled to use crutches, owing to having been run down by an auto and severely injured.

That little saw mill on the north end of Filbert street is tearing out lumber at a great rate for its capacity. The logs are being cut from the Irvin estate tract near the mill and is composed mostly of oak.

Frank Mullen has been appointed census taker of school children in the borough by the school board.

Another frame dwelling house is being built out on Bailey road by Mr. Woodward.

Extensive repairs are being added to the Greenwood hunting camp out on the mountains. Everything is being put in first class shape preparatory to the opening date of the hunting season.

The Bartelli-Dotts garage on Filbert street is receiving the attention of Plumbers Gates and Kettleberger. The old system of steam heat is being taken out and a new outfit substituted, with sufficient power to warm the entire large building.

In conversation with a young man who came here in a New Jersey car a few days ago, he said: "This town is the most peculiar place I have ever visited. There does not seem to be any law here at all governing automobiles. Every car driver turns where he pleases, parks where he pleases, and runs as fast as he pleases. It is surely an easy-going town." And his judgement was not far wrong at that.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Eckert motored to Houtzdale and Brisbin Sunday.

NO BABY CLINIC THIS WEEK: ALL GOING IN THE CONTEST

Miss Eliza B. Dill, supervising nurse here, announces that the Baby Clinic will not be held at the Red Cross rooms this coming Thursday because of the need for nurses at the rest room at the County Fair and in addition that their services are required there to conduct the examinations in the Better Babies Contest, one of the most pleasing features of the fair. Mothers should bring their babies from two months to one year of age to the rest room in the fair grounds either Wednesday, Thursday or Friday morning between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock to be entered in the Better Baby Contest.

Scotch "Howlers."

Here are some new "howlers" quoted in the Provincial, the magazine of the Edinburgh Provincial Training college: "Socrates died of an overdose of wedlock." "A marsupial is an animal with a pouch in its stomach, into which it retired when hard pressed." "An epitaph is a short, sarcastic poem." "Beckett met Henry on the altar steps and said, 'What ho, knight.' Henry struck him massacred him."

AN HISTORICAL LANDMARK

The traveler over the "Pine Grove Ridges" will notice on the Mitchell farm almost opposite the "Old Stone House," a beautiful new monument, hewn from old native stone and having on it a bronze plate suitably inscribed, showing this to be the site of the first Post Office in Clearfield County.

This monument, erected by the Susquehanna Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (notice of the unveiling of which will be given later) recalls the early days of our history. Days of no telephones, no telegraph, no automobiles, yea, no rail road. And we are reminded in these times, when our daily newspaper is almost as necessary as our daily food and when messages flying through the air tell of happenings over the entire Globe each hour in the twenty four of the patience, the strength of mind, the nerve that could WAIT displayed by the rugged pioneers of those bygone days. One of these was Alexander Read the first Post Master in our county and ancestor of a number of the members of the Susquehanna Chapter of the D. A. R., who was born in 1752 in Chester County which was then a province of Maryland. He served in the Revolutionary war in the Company of our Captain Smith of the "Flying Camp of Maryland." In 1802 with his wife Jemima, also a native of Maryland he came to this county and located in what is now the Mitchell farm then known as Readsboro. Here in 1813 in his home he established the Post Office of Readsboro. His commission was signed by the then Post Master General Gideon Granger.

The whole Post Office outfit consisted of a homemade wooden cabinet about four feet long, two and one half feet high and one foot deep which is now in possession of Amos Read, a grandson of the Post Master. This cabinet will be on exhibition at the County Fair together with the original commission.

A determining factor in the location of the Post Office was proximity to the stage-route on the Philadelphia and Erie Pike.

Alexander Read died in 1826 at the age of seventy-four years. Many of his descendants, among them a number of great great great grandchildren reside in our community. These include members of both R-E-A-D-S and R-E-E-D-S. The head of the house of Reed came to this locality about the same time as the other family and the two families soon became related through intermarriages.

Shows A Year Of Life In An Hour

"The----- Four Seasons"

A picture calculated to appeal to the imagination is "The Four Seasons," conceived and executed by Charles Urban and Raymond L. Ditmars. It may be called the oddest feature ever produced since the drama is enacted by all the animals and birds and insects of Nature's kingdom, while the skies, woodlands, forests, streams, mountains, plains, brooks, and nests provide the background. That the drama overwhelms one with its awe-inspiring scenes cannot be denied. That it at times soars with the intensity of purpose as the scheme of life is challenged is forcefully emphasized a score of times. Each animal has its peculiar gift of expression. And this orchestra of strange sounds goes on unceasingly through Eternity. Nature's children give vent to their dialogue. Some are powerful enough to be unmindful of the echo.

The frail or tender species may be singing a swan song. For a wolf can hear the shrill call of a doe. And birds trap themselves sometimes. Nature is cruel too. But the animals have an instinct which lessens the cruelty. The will to live causes them to work unceasingly in providing shelter. Spring ushers them into the world. The polly-wog grows into a frog before summer has passed. The chicken leaves its shell. The hatching season has arrived. The warmth of soil and sun brings the woodchuck from his hole. And they thrive and multiply. And autumn discovers the weaker forces preparing to leave the earth life. Thus the scheme goes on about us. Meanswhile the backgrounds are being changed by unseen hands.

SPLENDID NEW AUTOMOBILE HEARSES

Two of the most unique exhibits at the Clearfield county fair, are automobile hearses owned by Fred B. Leavy, the local undertaker, and Undertaker Harry Weber, of Philipsburg These handsome vehicles were manufactured by the Meteor Motor Car Company of Pigua, Ohio, a concern which manufactures hearses and ambulances only.

The new machines arrived in Clearfield yesterday and the local representative of the makers was prevailed upon to place them upon exhibition for the week.

They are without a doubt the handsomest funeral cars to be found in this entire region.

Stinging Power of Bees.

Only queen bees and workers have the power to sting. The drones cannot sting. The stinger is curved, and is carried sheathed. It can be driven into the flesh for a distance of one-twelfth of an inch. After the point enters there is a flow of poison. It is believed that a bee cannot sting a second time because, owing to backward pointing barbs, the stinger is left in the wound. Thus, the bee dies as a result of its vengeance.

Imagination.

This power . . . reveals itself in the balance or reconcilement of opposite or discordant qualities: of sameness, with difference; of the general, with the concrete; the idea with the image; the individual with the representative, the sense of novelty and freshness with old and familiar objects; a more than usual state of emotion with more than usual order; judgment ever awake and steady self-possession with enthusiasm and feeling profound or vehement.—Coleridge.

April Fooling Is Old Custom.

No satisfactory origin has been assigned to April Fool's day. The custom of hoodwinking people at this time is traced by some to the ancient Kuh festival of India, observed March 31. On this day the Hindus play harmless pranks on one another, a practice dating back to ancient times.

"Come Off."

This bit of American slang, used imperatively and meaning "desist" or "cease," is relatively new to modern use. It is startling, therefore, to find that it occurs in Chaucer's "Parliament of Fowles" in exactly the modern sense. The birds grow tired of listening to a long discussion among the young eagles; and so at last: "'Come off!' they cryde, 'alas! you will us shende!'"

Ask the Wife.

Why is it that some men will take counsel with everybody else sooner than they will with their wives? If they would go to her first and do as she advises, there would be fewer men down on their luck at the present time. —Farm Life.

A SWEET LITTLE BABY BOY

Makes a Bright Spot in Every Home. A Comfort in Years to Come

Park Rapids, Minnesota.—"I have taken your medicine — Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound — when I was a girl for pains and before and after my marriage. I now have a sweet little baby boy and will send you his picture if you wish to publish it. My sisters also take your medicine and find it a great help, and I recommend it to those who suffer before their babies are born." — Mrs. Wm. Johnson, Box 155, Park Rapids, Minn.

To marry and arrive at middle age without children is a great disappointment to many women. Think of the joy and comfort other women have in their children as they grow older.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped to bring great happiness to many families by restoring women to health. Often the childless home is due to a run down condition of the wife, which may be helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It brought health and happiness into the home of Mrs. Johnson. You Are Living in the Present

When the Science of Optics is Able to Preserve Your Eyesight and Health

IN a recent Saturday Evening Post an advertisement of Wellsworth Glasses tells how the greatest optical specialists of England last year turned to America for a scientist to describe the latest progress in optics. It will pay you to find this advertisement and read it. It says in part:

"An eyesight specialist in your town can look into your eye and see the meeting point of light and mind. He can measure the distortion of light rays in an imperfect eye. Then he is able to relieve the strain in the eyes and stop the drain on the energy of the mind by guiding the light waves with eyeglass lenses of delicate curvature."

If you lived in any time but the present no one could blame you if you waited until your eyes gave you serious trouble before having them examined.

1. Failing eyesight will drive you, sooner or later, to consult an eyesight specialist.

2. Certain eye troubles which haven't yet affected your clear vision will force you sooner or later to see a specialist. Such eye troubles are pain in the eyes, burning, itching, and a feeling of eye strain.

3. Sooner or later, troubles caused by your eyes, such as headaches, nervousness, general fatigue, nausea, irritability and indigestion may insist on your consulting us. Don't neglect such symptoms of eye trouble.

Where Thousands Perished in Smyrna Disaster

On the quays of Smyrna, shown here, thousands of refugees perished, caught between the sea and a wall of flame as Smyrna burned after its occupation by the Turkish army. American and allied destroyers were unable to give aid, being already crammed with refugees. The number of dead has been placed at 120,000, though accurate figures are not available.

TURKS AGAIN INVADE NEUTRAL ZONE; BRITISH GIVE 48 HOUR QUIT NOTICE

For the second time the Turks are reported to have moved into neutral territory in the Dardanelles vicinity A few days ago such an advance wa made but the Turks withdrew on representations made by the British commander in charge of the neutral zone This movement was said to be due to a misunderstanding and little significance was attached to it

The Allied admirals have notified the Kemalist forces making the advance on the straits in the neutral zone that they must fall back to their original position It is understood that the notification is in the form of an ultimatum and that the Turks have been given forty-eight hours in which to withdraw machine gun units and cavalry In case the withdrawal is not begun before the expiration of the time limit, the British will move on the Kemalists

From Constantinople it is report I that the British march on Krenkeru, a position ten miles south of Chanak the regular British base, has already started The destination of the British is believed to be Kusukeui which is seven miles south of Chanak and three miles north of Krenkeru, to which the Turks have advanced The British purpose is to take up a position at Kusukeui where they could cross fire on any further advance of the Turks

The civilian population of the area under dispute has been notified by the British authorities to evacuate for their own safety

EXCURIONIST JUST FIFTY YEARS LATE GETTING HIS TRAIN

Oil City P Sept 26(U P)—Though you are always missing your train do not think that you hold the record Elias James would be excursionist to Pittsburgh sought transportation on a train that left fifty years ago

'Wh t are your excursion rates to Pittsburgh' h asked the agent

"We have no excursion to Pittsburgh today, was the reply

'Os, yes you have I saw it advertised and have the paper right here'

The puzzled ticket salesman asked to see the paper and found the following under the heading 'Fifty Years Ago'

An excursion will be run today to Pittsburgh over the Allegheny Railroad to enable patrons to view the full exhibition

WITNESSED DOUBLE EXECUTION

Lieutenant Joel B Ivey was one of Pitts w penitentiary early yesterday morning having been summoned to witness to a double execution two convicted murderers having been called upon to meet death in the electric chair

If the great State of Pennsylvania should set itself up as the official executioner of two men undoubtedly more or less defective mentally, in this enlightened age is certainly to be regretted

Mr Ivey said the executions were mechanically perfect and were carried out without a hitch

Transporting Live Bears From Potter Co. Is Work Of Game Commission

Harrisburg, Pa, Sept 26—(U P)—The transfer of live bears from Potter County, where there are too many, to other sections of the state where there are not enough for game purposes, is being developed by the Game Commission more extensively this year than ever before

Already this season 15 bears have been trapped in Potter County and "planted" in regions comprising Westmoreland, Bedford Cambria Plain, Somerset, Franklin, Adams and Cumberland counties

A double purpose is sought in these transfers—to relieve the dense bear population of Potter County and to stock other sections of the state for game purposes At present a hunter may kill only one bear a season except in Potter, where there is no limit to his bag

The bears to be transferred are caught in log pen traps, crated, shipped to their new home and turned loose One recently freed from his shipping crate in the South Mountain section deserted for forest depth with such dispatch that photographers were unable even to snap a picture of his flight

Eight Million Young Trees Are Growing In State Nursery Here

Harrisburg Pa, Sept 25—District Forester Dague of Clearfield, has reported to the Department of Forestry that an inventory of the Clearfield nursery this week showed that it contained very nearly 8,000,00 young trees This is the first year since 1918 that the nursery has been fully stocked Scarcity in obtaining forest tree seeds during the war accounted for the shortage in seedlings for the past few years

During the last two years the demand by private planters for tree seedlings for planting has increased and has overrun the supply but it is expected that the Department of Forestry will in a few years be able to supply all the stock needed The Clearfield nursery will be enlarged to almost double its present capacity

One has to go some to keep track of the innovations always being "sprung" by our American Legion Band Every time they appear on the street thereis something new to attest to their progressiveness For the Fair, at which they will appear daily, they will for the first time in Clearfield display their battery of trumpets These instruments built like a cornet but with a five foot shank and an oriental air to the appearance of the band and add to the effect of the march wonderfully A brand new Sousaphone one of those big bass horns which the performer winds about his body boa constrictor like, is also here for the big Fair

But the best is yet to come and in this another of Clearfields most public spirited men has had a part The band boys felt that they needed a new drum major the fellow who leads the parade and they searched through the catalogs until they found a wonderful creation in blue and gold with silver tassels and gold braid An order was placed with Bill Sheeder of Sheeder's Music House and the baton arrived in time for presentation to the band at evening Mr Sheeder appeared on the platform in the midst of the band's first number little speech presented the baton to the band with the expected bill he refusing to accept it for the boys stated that a

Although Livestock Pens Have Been Doubled, Farmers Have Added Much More to Exhibits.

WEATHER IS FINE

The management of Clearfield's Big Fair have been contending ever since they began preparing for same that the 1922 exhibition would be by far the largest and most successful fair in the history of the present Fair Association Everybody who visited the Fair grounds today is convinced they new what they were talking about when they made this prediction One and all are loudly voicing the opinion that this fair is the best ever

The last couple of fairs found the exhibition buildings, stock and cattle beds too small to accommodate the exhibits offered and to guard against such condition this year, such quarters were more than doubled and one idea of the manner in which Clearfield county farmers have responded to the invitation to exhibit their stock and produce will be gained when it is learned that this morning found every nook and corner of every exhibition building or stall at the fair housing a worth-while exhibit of some desirable kind or other, while many entries had to be turned away for lack of room

The exhibits are really wonderful and are a revelation to the uninitiated as to the great advance of agriculture and stock raising in Clearfield county

A visit to this section of the fair is well worth while and there is a constant stream of visitors to and from the live stock sections The poultry exhibit also swamped the superintendent in charge, the greatly enlarged building being entirely inadequate to take care of the entries offered while many disappointed chicken fanciers were forced to return their exhibits to their pens for lack of room

The horse races should also prove to be the best ever as the entry list was never equalled here before, which will bring an exceptionally large number of starters in every event

The Clearfield American Legion and Clearfield Italian bands are furnishing the music today Lieut Emery put his airplane thru its paces Sam Spencer's shows are accommodating record crowds and there is something doing for everybody all the time

There will be a band concert, fire works and other music during the evening

HUNTERS SHOULD KEEP POSTED ON SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Harrisburg, Pa, Sept 26 (U P)—A printed statement giving the official time of sunrise and sunset during the hunting season was sent today to all game officials and organizations by the Game Commission

Under the provisions of the game laws, it is unlawful to hunt for or shoot at game of any kinds except raccoons between sunset and sunrise The statement was sent out to assist game protectors and hunters alike in determining the exact time of the sun's advent and departure on any given day

The swift shortening of the length of the hunting day as the season progresses is shown in the times at fortnightly intervals given here

BIG FOREST FIRE IS SPREADING TOWARD CROOKED RUN CAMP

The forest fire continues to rage in the Knobs and Chestnut Ridge country It is spreading toward main Trout Run in the Crooked Run section and daily making rapid headway despite the valiant efforts to combat it being made by State Forester Dague and the sixty men working under his direction

A delegation of thirty High School students were hauled out to the fire zone in motor trucks last evening and reinforced the men already on the fire line They are still on the job today and are giving a good account of themselves

The fire fighters are seriously handicapped by the fact that about all the mountain runs are dry and there is very little water available anywhere with which to combat the flames

More men will have to be secured by this evening and wholesale subpoenaing of experienced fire fighters will likely be resorted to

JUDGES ARE GUESTS OF COMMERCIALITES; BOTH MAKE TALKS

The Commercial Club members heard a number of interesting reports from important committees last evening and were particularly pleased at the work of the sign board committee which has succeeded in having signs erected along the State road running through Clearfield directing traffic through the town in both directions

In addition to a fine dinner, the Club enjoyed a pleasant hour of fellowship in discussing with one another as they sat at the table a great many things of community interest

The evening came to a close with a very entertaining and worth while address by Judge Reed of Cambria county, who, with Judge Bell, was club guests Judge Reed and Judge Bell both were given the privilege of the floor and made very interesting talks

Pearl Bahmer, 15, (above) who with Raymond Schneider, 19, found the murdered bodies of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, choir singer at New Brunswick, N J has been questioned by authorities and detained in custody Schneider also has been questioned and ordered to return for further questioning

New Brunswick, N. J., Sept. 26—"I care more for Mr. Hall's little finger than I do for your whole body" This is what the late Mrs Eleanor Mills told her husband in the presence of a neighbor woman some time ago when Mr Mills took his wife to task for giving so much of her time to the church and spending so much time in the company of the slain rector This statement was made by Mrs Jane Opie, a neighbor of Mrs. Mills

"I was sitting in the Mills home one evening when Mrs Mills came in Her husband asked her where she had been "I have been to the church," replied Mrs Mills "To church, eh? It seems to me you care more for the church and Rev Hall than you do for me," said Mr Mills To this Mrs Mills replied, "I care more for Mr Halls' little finger than I do for your whole body"

Man Seriously Hurt In Automobile Wreck At DuBois Unidentified

On Sunday evening last a Ford car occupied by two young men was struck by a trolley car at the B & S crossing at DuBois The Ford was badly smashed up and one of the occupants so seriously injured he has since been unable to give an account of himself

In speaking of the affair the DuBois Courier this morning says:

The identity of the persons injured when their Ford overturned at the B & S crossing Sunday evening remains a mystery. The one young man at the hospital still remains in state of coma and cannot divulge his identity, while the other occupant of the car has disappeared.

The badly injured man remains semi-conscious and several X-rays have been taken to ascertain the extent of the injury to his head. It is believed that he has a fractured skull

Trolley officials, who investigated the accident, declare the car that struck the wrecked machine, plowed into the machine after the occupants had been removed and that any injuries suffered by them were not inflicted by the street car

TOM WATSON, U. S. SENATOR FROM GA., DIES OF ASTHMA

Washington, D C., Sept. 26.—United States Senator Tom Watson of Georgia died suddenly at his home here early this morning. Acute asthma, from which he had been a sufferer for several years, was the cause of his death. He had a severe attack of the malady a week ago but had recovered sufficiently to attend the final session of the Senate last Friday and although advised by his physicians to be quiet, he insisted that he was feeling fine. Last night he ate a hearty dinner and apparently was in better health than for a long time, but a recurrence of the malady attacked him and he died at 2 40 a. m today

Funeral arrangements have not been completed but the late senator's funeral will be held at Thompson, Georgia, where Mrs. Watson went some time ago.

Senator Watson was sixty six years old.

Auto Accident At Montgomery Bridge Is Fully Explained

The DuBois Courier carried a story yesterday morning concerning an auto smash-up near Hyde City late Saturday night in which a truck driven by Dudley Powell of Clearfield, and a Jordan car driven by Charles Kline and occupied by Coach Treadwell and a bunch of DuBois High School football players figured.

The DuBois story naturally took care of the DuBois end of it, but it failed to detail the correct story of the affair. Mr. Powell was coming down the State road toward Clearfield, while the other car was traveling in the direction of DuBois. Two cars were parked along the right hand side of the road just beyond the Montgomery bridge and in swinging out to pass these cars the Jordan car hit Mr Powell's truck and bouncing off continued on its way for nearly two hundred feet before its driver was able to stop it The engine of the truck was stalled by the force of the blow when the DuBois car hit it and didn't travel over six feet following the smash. No particular damage was done.

PENNSYLVANIA'S NEXT GOVERNOR WILL VISIT CLEARFIELD SURE THIS WEEK

M'SPARRAN WILL PROVE VERSATILE

Hon John A McSparran, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, will be a visitor to Clearfield tomorrow He will be met by a committee of local Democratic leaders at Tyrone in the morning and brought over the mountains by automobile.

Candidate McSparran is scheduled to adddress the fair crowd during the afternoon. Mr. McSparran is a versatile chap In addition to being head of the Pennsylvania State Grange, he is a real "dirt farmer" and also finds time at times to preach the Gospel, as he is also a lay preacher of the Methodist Episcopal church

In addition to Mr McSparran, Robert E Pattison, Jr, son of the one Democrat who was twice elected Governor of rock ribbed Republican Pennsylvania, United States Senator candidate Fred B Kerr, Congress candidate, Hon J Frank Snyder, Candidate for State Senator William I Betts and Legislative candidates Alex McMullen and W Haley Betts will also be in the party of campaigners

Miss Hazel Nolph of Punxsutawney has returned to her home after spending a few days with Mrs Lee Solt, of the Leonard Hotel.

PINCHOT SPEAKS FROM THE SHOULDER

Gifford Pinchot, the man who by his dominant personality and forceful methods of appealing directly to the people, swept the political decks of this State clean last spring, will be a Clearfield visitor Friday morning at ten o'cock at which time he will speak from the Court House steps In his party will be the candidates for other State offices, Col. David J Davis for Lieutenant Governor, United States Senator Major David Reed, Hon Wm. I. Swoope for Congress, Hon. H B. Scott for State Senator, Hon Charles B. Jones, and Hon D D Miller for Assembly.

There is little need to dwell on Pinchot as an audience getter. He had a great one at the primaries and everybody who voted for him then will want to see him and hear him. As for Swoope, Scott and Jones, each one of these gentlemen made strong campaigns for nominations at the hands of the Republican party against able and popular opponents and Republicans admire their grit.

Do not forget the hour—ten o'clock on Friday morning. Kill two birds with one stone Get acquainted on Friday morning with your next State officers and see the Fair in the afternoon. Remember that the races are just as fast and furious on the last day as on the big day.

TRINITY HEARS OF PROGRESS MADE TOWARDS BUILDING OF PARISH HOUSE

By Rev. Dr. Horace Lincoln Jacobs.

Wednesday, Sept. 27, 8 p. m. the corporation of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, of which every Trinity Church member is a legal unit, is to meet in the interest of the Parish House. This movement has been greatly advanced by a recent revised provision for the construction of the building, in amount to $33,000 which has been made by a public spirited citizen of Clearfield. Sunday morning in the public congregation Secretary A. H. Woodward of the board of trustees presented the entire movement in an illuminating address.

The very noble, generous gift, which comes from Mr. Asbury W. Lee is paralleled by his clear grasp of the needs of this Community and the church, honored and beloved by his father in the years of his early vigorous itinerancy. To conceive of service by such an institution, contributing definitely to every part of every man, is proof of a serious study of the conditions under which the largest help can be afforded to people, especially the young. Then to think out those conditions in the terms of dollars that run into thousand, is evidence of living out great convictions, and not of having mere impulses. While the Church and the Methodist community associated in not only the three Pastoral charges of this town, but of the entire county, shall be highly advantaged by the opportunities and services that this parish house will furnish, there must be a very peculiar sense of gratification to the donor in his relation to the ministries and activities that will center for years to come in that parish house and emenate from it to the Methodist people of Clearfield county and indirectly to the entire community.

The Rally Day events were of unusual interest and promise. With an attendance of 640 first count an offering of $77.75 and musical features by School and enlarged orchestra, the School was ready to enjoy teh exercises presented by 27 scholars graduating from the Primary department. Songs, Bible tests, alphabet Scripture verses were well rendered. Diplomas were presented by the Superintendent, Miss Carrie Powell. Superintendent Arnold gave the word of welcome and promotion, the pastor adding the announcement of Bible rewards. Mrs. Charles H McDowell reported the number on Cradle Roll at 155, which heartened the School. Forty-four years ago the review Sunday in September fell on the 24th, the records of the School showed on that day an attendance of 78 with one new scholar and 70c in the offering. Of those 78 present then ten reported present yesterday

Miss Josephine McMurray had charge of the presentation of the Woman that Dared—Queen Esther by 20 scholars. Miss Maude Powell's class was responsible for the decorations which were beautiful, and the program.

Both morning and evening congregations showed marked gains in attendance and interest, the number of strangers and commerical travelers was exceptionally large. The exposition of Psalm 87:5 was turned in its application to the task of Trinity and its opportunity for enlarged equipment to serve every man full rounded and the Methodist community through the parish house. At night from Rev. 2-7-9 the subject of the Massacre at Smyrna was run into the study of the Mohammedan movement through history and the present objective as revealed by purposes manifest in former Saracen conquests. People were in the audience that have visited Smyrna and Asia Minor.

This week's events. Monday, parsonage, League cabinet: Mrs. Leonardson's home, lady members in group of I. J. K. and L family names. Wednesday, service starts 7:30, merging into corporation meeting, 8 p. m. Firday, 4 p. m. Junior League. Through October Sunday nights, special sermons for young people.

Mistral Has Its Uses.

The mistral is a chilling wind which sweeps down from the central plateau of France to the Mediterranean. It dries up the muddy morasses and the unsanitaries and miasmic vapors connected therewith.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY

FAIR NEWS

: ISSUED EVERY DAY BY THE CLEARFIELD COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION :

CLEARFIELD COUNTY'S GREATEST FAIR OPENED TODAY

There will be a carload of laughs for the Fair Patrons tomorrow afternoon when the greased pig is turned loose between the 2:17 pace and the 2:18 trot. The good husky eight-weeks-old porker will be first thoroughly greased with the slipperiest kind of grease and turned loose to give its best efforts in evading the crowd that is expected to be pursuing it in the oval.

Chances are about even. The porker is a husky one, the chasers will labor under no restrictions. No holds are barred and all that is required by the management is that the piggie be held for a reasonable length of time.

If you haven't laughed for a year, this should at least cause a smile.

Ex-Lieut. Emery arrived this morning and did some stunt flying over the grounds and city this afternoon. Tomorrow he will give some thrilling stunt flying and Burton Jones will give a wing-walking exhibition during the afternoon.

Lovers of harness racing were certainly given their money's worth in the two races that were staged this afternoon. Tomorrow afternoon the 2:17 pace and the 2:18 trot will be staged. The track is fast and the weather is ideal for fast time.

There are several rival stables represented at the Fair and they are racing to win the money. As we have said before, the purse for each race is high enough to attract the best racing talent of the entire section of the country. The races just closed at Apollo, Pa., where some new records were hung out, have furnished a lot of good horseflesh for our Fair on account of the short trip.

The Baby Contest started with a bang and tomorrow the "weighing in" and the assignment of competition numbers will be carried on in the Rest Room under the supervision of the Red Cross. The weighing in starts at 9 and ends at 11 tomorrow morning.

Never before in the history of the fifty-one years of the Clearfield County Fair has there been such interest shown in the exhibition of cattle, sheep and swine. Every one of the commodious new stalls has been taken and the animals on display are evoking high praise from the crowds that visited the stalls this afternoon. The poultry exhibit is of exceptional merit and every inch of available space is taken up with the best the county produces.

The Curwensville American Legion Band will give a concert from the big stand in the grove tomorrow afternoon, while the Clearfield American Legion Band is playing from the new band stand in the oval facing the grand stand. The Clearfield American Legion Band will give a concert tomorrow evening in the grove band stand starting at 7:30, which will be followed by fireworks.

The Spencer Shows are going full tilt and every attraction is getting its share of favor. The attraction that seems very popular is the athletic show, where boxing bouts and wrestling bouts are being staged every few minutes. The management of the show requests that anyone who would like to try grapples with their wrestler may have that privilege and wishes the local talent to come forward. The wrestling is clean and fair and not of the usual laugh-making kind.

On the ball diamond, facing the grand stand, Penn State workers have erected a huge banner and are giving their two million campaign a great boost. This banner will be lighted at night and will have its message ready for the night patrons.

Costs Nothing To Play

It's the most interesting, educating, fun-producing and profitable game ever attempted. It doesn't cost you one single penny to participate and yet you may win a handsome prize. Absolutely, we are positive you will find it the most fascinating game you have ever tried and are sure you will be exceedingly thankful to The Harrisburg Telegraph for so generously offering it's readers and friends such a grand opportunity to play, earn and learn. Get started tonight friend—you won't go amiss.

HERE'S THE WAY TO WIN $1000

It costs nothing to take part, and you don't have to send in a single subscription to win a prize. In this event, if your list of "B-Words" is awarded First Prize, you will receive $50, and it should also be borne in mind a list with no accompanying subscriptions will receive the same consideration as those that do. However, if you wish to play for the larger prizes, you may do so in the following manner.

If your answer is awarded First Prize and you have sent in one $5.00 yearly subscription, payable in advance, or two $3.00 yearly R. F. D. mail subscriptions, payable in advance (new or renewal), you will receive $350, as shown in the second column of figures—BUT NOW COMES THE GRANDEST OF ALL OFFERS.

If your answer is awarded First Prize and you have sent in two $5.00 yearly subscriptions, payable in advance, or one $5.00 yearly subscription and two $3.00 yearly R. F. D. mail subscriptions, payable in advance (all either new or renewals), you will receive $1,000 in good cold American Cash.

THINK OF IT—a real young fortune for practically nothing. Your own subscription (new or renewal) will count for one, and we will take subscriptions to start at any future date. When remitting, give full instructions on a separate sheet of paper from that containing your answer.

OBSERVE THESE SIMPLE RULES

1. This game is open to every man, woman and child who is not an employe of The Harrisburg Telegraph or a member of an employe's family.
2. Answers must be mailed on or before October 21st, 1922.
3. Prizes will be awarded for the largest and nearest correct lists of names of visible objects beginning with letter "B" submitted, computed on a basis of one merit mark for each correct word, and one demerit mark deducted for each error and omission. Handwriting, neatness, etc., will not be counted for or against a contestant.
4. Write on one side of paper, number each word consecutively as for instance, 1, 2, 3,—write full name on each page.
5. Do not use hyphenated, compound or obsolete words or words made up of two or more complete English words. Use singular or plural, but not both.
6. Words of the same spelling can be used only once. One object can be named only once, but if the same object appears several times in the picture and synonyms of a different spelling beginning with letter "B" can be found that will apply to each, they may be used. A whole object and any part thereof may be named.
7. One prize will be awarded to only one individual or group.
8. In the event of ties, the full amount of the tied prize will be paid to each participant.
9. Three judges having no connection with The Harrisburg Telegraph, using Webster's New International Dictionary as their guide in determining correct and incorrect words will meet at the close of the game to award the prizes and announcement of the winners will be made in The Harrisburg Telegraph as soon thereafter as possible. Each and every person participating in this game absolutely and without any reservations whatsoever, egrees to be guided by the decisions of the Judges as final and conclusive.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

During the "dry spell," it is said that special notice has been served by the Clearfield Water Company on all local "moonshiners" and "home brewers" to lay off on manufacturing as the drain on the local water supply is too strenuous. They promised to be one hundred per cent. patriotic. That is the entire one hundred promised to obey the request.

Every American family will pay an average of $160 a year more for clothes, food and other necessities because of the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill, Treasury experts said today. Although the total cost of living will be increased by $4,000,000,000, the bill carries a new provision authorizing the President to increase the rates 50 per cent. if he desires.

Of the total protection of $6,500,000,000, only $230,000,000 will be paid into the treasury and the rest will go to the favored interests, according to the experts.

The following is the estimated amount of protection on principal products:

Cement, pottery, chinaware, $214,000,000; steel and other metals, $1,148,000,000; wood, furniture, lumber, $297,000,000; sugar, confectionery, $333,000,000; tobacco, $429,000,000; food, agricultural products, $1,233,000,000; cotton goods, $807,000,000; wool clothing, $760,000,000; silk and silk goods, $326,000,000.

Fires in the United States during the past forty years consumed about eight billions of dollars worth of property. If a sum of money equal to each annual loss by fire had been invested at 6 per cent. compound interest at the time of the loss, it would now be sufficient to wipe out our present national debt of $25,000,000,000.

The old home of James Monroe, fifth President of the United States, and father of the famous Monroe Doctrine, located at the corner of Lafayette and Prince streets, New York City, has been purchased by a friend of the noted old patriot, and will be restored to the shape it was in during the last years of President Monroe's life and maintained as a patriotic shrine.

Rev. Thomas W. Young, 76 years of age, recently fired as chaplain at the Western Penitentiary at Rockview, Centre county, because, he says, he protested against the inmates being compelled to work on Sunday, claims to see the near approach of the millenium in a prophecy with which he closes his statement concerning the manner of his dismissal. The aged minister says:—"I will make this prophecy—that in twenty years from now there will be no prisons. The world is undergoing a reformation and matters will become worse. We are losing our relation to God and forgetting Him. That is why there are so many strikes and troubles. The worst is yet to come. During the period from 1928 to 1936 will be the worst. Then there will be lasting peace and a new order."

"If you wish distraction from the cares of earth, think of this:

Before a recent meeting of a fron-omers in Santa Fe, N. M., pictures were screened of floating masses of incandescent gas containing matter enough to condense into 10,000 suns, each the possible center of a universe as large as our own.

Their distance was reckoned at one million light years. A light year means the time required for a ray of light tarveling at 186,324 miles per second to speed for 31,558,149 seconds.

Figure that, multiply by a million, then try to imagine a space so far distant where worlds like our own may be forming beyond our power to count.

Of course you can't do it. But the effort may temporarily reduce your feeling of self-importance."

Booth, the tra[illegible]n (brother of Edwin Booth), had a broken nose. A lady once remarked to him, "I like your acting, Mr. Booth, but to be frank with you, I can't quite get over your nose." "No wonder, madam," replied he, "The bridge is gone."

The death of Tom Watson removes a character from the United States Senate and the service will not be any worse off. Watson devoted his energies late in life to an un-American purpose, that of creating race hatred, religious prejudice and suspicion of all organized effort. Rarely did he ever make good on his blatant charges. He feasted on the passions of people who he could stir with his inflammatory speeches and writings and never was held accountable to the law for his wild rantings. We admire a man of strong convictions and give him the right to his convictions but have a right to deny him the use of the unfair and untruthful methods employed by Tom Watson.

Pike Township must have a progressive board of school directors. They have employed a township supervisor of schools whose duty it will be to oversee the business of manufacturing eighth grade graduates. Township supervision is not a new idea and a little bit of business judgment will show anybody that it is correct in principle. This man, if given a free hand, as by that we mean he should be given full authority and co-operation, will save the cost of his salary in school supplies alone.

Unfortunately there will be citizens who will look at the cost of his salary and think that just that much is to be added to the school bill. This need not be so and will not be so as experience in other districts has demonstrated.

The writer, who was a school director in Indiana County at one time, knows from experience what can be accomplished by a township school supervisor. He also knows what great mistakes the average board of school directors make in the selection of books and supplies. Reliance on a township supervisor will eliminate the buying of useless text books and unsuitable supplies.

School districts running from ten to forty individual school plants are the only employers in the country today who do not have working foremen and superintendents to instill principles of efficiency and co-ordination in their business.

Speaking of Tom Watson and his various attempts to stir up religious strife in the South it is timely to call attention to a few Tom Watsons in our midst at the present time who are seeking to take a political advantage in certain districts. There is no more despicable trick in modern politics than to prey on the prejudices of the voter by denominational inferences.

Our State Superintendent of Public Instruction is Dr. Thomas E. Finnegan. Political opponents of the administration are calling his comprehensive educational plan "Finneganism." The purpose is all too plain. These Tom Watsons would have the anti-Catholic voter believe as Finnegan is a Catholic, and if there is anything in a name, he ought to be, but he is not.

The Progress will have some more to say about "Finneganism" after the political opponents of a non-political school organization have said all they can say.

Now is the time to eat apples. The fruit is never better and more wholesome than at this time of year, and it is comparatively cheap. Also lay in your supply quick. There are not as many apples as you would imagine. Crop reports show the crop only fifty-eight per cent of normal. Buy them now while they are lowest.

Farmers having some land that could be planted in orchards would do well to heed the signs of the times as revealed by figures showing the consumption of apples in such cities as Philadelphia. Philadelphia had shipped to her people last year 3,416 carloads of apples. Where did they come from? It is lamentably true that only 217 carloads came from this state. New York state shipped 1,208 carloads to Philadelphia. Thus it will be seen that Pennsylvania apple growers are not beginning to supply their own state.

A few other items of interest are dug up by Secretary Fred Rasmussen of the state department of agriculture.

Philadelphia used 1,962 carloads of cabbage. Pennsylvania truck growers furnished only 18 carloads of this great amount. Potatoes 7,460 carloads. Pennsylvania furnished only 2,046.

The same is true of many other products of the farm. Can we too, not do it on a large scale, and by proper market conditions, sell the product to Philadelphia and other cities that must go out of the state for their supply? We can.

False Fortunes

A false feeling of wealth comes with free spending, for a person usually feels richest while engaged in the very act of making himself poorer.

Whenever you are tempted to spend unnecessarily, put that amount into an interest-bearing account here.

Then a feeling of wealth will eventually be justified by the substantial sum to your credit.

Bringing the Dead to Life.

Many apparently dead persons have been resuscitated by injecting into the heart one cubic centimeter of a 1 in 1,000 solution of either adrenalin or pituitrin; the injection is made into the left intercostal space one or two finger breadths to the left of the sternal border.—Scientific American.

Simple China Cement.

To mend china or glassware, make a very thick solution of gum arabic and stir into it plaster of paris until the mixture is of proper consistency. About one ounce each is about the proper quantity to use. Apply with a brush to the broken edges, press together, tie into position and leave for a few days when it will be perfectly firm. This makes a white cement.

Early Dabblers in Dentistry.

The first physician to speak of treating the teeth is Galen (131-200 A. D.) The science of dentistry, however, may be said to date from 1839, when Prof. Richard Newton pointed out "the organic connection between the vascular and the vital soft parts of the frame and the hard substance of the teeth." His work appeared in 1840-1845.

Wanted the Money, Anyway.

A boy at school was continually writing home for money. His father made a final refusal, giving as a reason that he did not wish to encourage his son to become a spendthrift. The son, not to be outdone, replied: "Dear Dad: Will you kindly lend me $5, as I am saving up?"

Too Late.

A French scientist says that in order to attain a ripe old age it is necessary to sleep in a due north and south position. We may die young but we'll keep right on sleeping on our right side, all curled up with our knees under our chin. It's too late for us to start now worrying whether or not we're pointed north.

HOW TO KEEP YOUR BABY WELL

A Weekly Talk To Mothers Issued Through The Babies' Prophylactic Clinic, Henry Phipps Institution, 7th and Lombard Streets,

VACCINATION

Every baby should be vaccinated preferably between the third and fourth month of life, provided he is vigorous and healthy. Some physicians prefer to vaccinate at a later date. It is better to have the baby vaccinated in the spring and autumn unless he had been exposed to small pox, in which-case he should be vaccinated immediately.

Vaccination is the one sure means of protection against small-pox. Just how long a single vaccination protects a person from getting the disease, it is hard to say. So be on the safe side, the child that was vaccinated during infancy, should again be vaccinated on entering school.

Vaccination is practically harmless. The occasional accidents that arise are not due to the vaccination itself but invariably to the lack of care of the vaccination wound.

Of course there is some discomfort experienced by babies while the vaccination "is taking." They may have fever, which at times is high. Other symptoms may be restlessness, fretfulness, loss of appetite, and even vomiting.

No doubt many people wonder why vaccination is still used to protect against small pox when small-pox is hardly ever present. The reason for this is that compulsory vaccination has completely eliminated this disease, which formerly caused thousands of deaths a year. But where small-pox has been eradicated and vaccination has been more or less discontinued, fresh attacks of the disease occur. While no statistics are furnished in these articles, this statement is founded on absolute fact.

Considerable propaganda is brought to the attention of mothers with regard to the dangers and usefulness of vaccination. Horrible and exaggerated examples are given to terrify them. In every case after careful and honest investigation by unprejudiced people these stories have been found to be untrue.

It must be remembered that small-pox is almost a disease of the past where compulsory vaccination is present, but without vaccination it is an ever present chance.

Bunyan's Valley of Humiliation.

This Valley of Humiliation is of itself as fruitful a place as any the crow flies over. It is the best and most fruitful piece of ground in all these parts. Behold how green this valley is; also how beautified with lilies. I have known many labouring men that have got good estates in this Valley of Humiliation, for "God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble."—John Bunyan.

Court Notes

Dr. Mitchell, a Mahaffey "tooth sporter," was convicted by a jury in Judge Bell's court yesterday of operating a motor vehicle on the streets of the Chest Creek capital, while under the influence of liquor.

Vesper Cowie of DuBois, was placed on trial before Judge Reed in Friday afternoon charged with assault and battery and attempt to rape. The complaining witness is a fifteen-year-old DuBois girl named Turner. Cowie is being prosecuted by District Attorney Arnold, while Messrs. Gleason and Woodward have charge of the defense.

A PERFECT GIRL

What Scouting Did for Helen Simpson.

New York, Sept. 26.—The most perfect girl of 178 in the Girls High School of Brooklyn is a Girl Scout. She is Miss Helen Simpson of 1190 Bushwick avenue, Brooklyn.

"My experience as a Girl Scout has been of great aid in building up my body," said Miss Simpson after the examination in which she was picked as the most perfect specimen of girlhood in her class. "Happiness, however, has had much to do with it. I have always preferred an outdoor to a social success, and such dancing as I have done was to develop grace."

Miss Simpson is sixteen. She is 62 inches tall and weighs 112 pounds. Her chest measures 33 inches, her waist 27 inches, her hips 37 inches, her calf 14 inches and her biceps 11¼ inches; her chest expanded is 35½ inches.

Before Miss Simpson was picked as the "Health Girl," she was made to undergo a most rigid test. She was the only girl not disqualified during the examinations.

The young woman sleeps with her bedroom windows wide open, Girl Scout fashion, takes plenty of outdoor exercise each day, observes regular hours, disdains tea and coffee and eats little candy. She does not try to excel in sports but is good at swimming, basket ball and the like. Her favorite exercise is bicycle riding.

Five Other Reasons That Recommend Prompt Decision

1. Price Reduction
2. Terms
3. Service
4. Value
5. Solves the Problem

1 The radical price reduction by the manufacturer, to bed rock, made possible by reduced labor, and material costs, and the outlook for increased volume, has been passed on to you. Prices today are lowest for this year. Having passed the low point we now see advancing tendency of steel and iron, so that there is no question, we believe, but that the purchase price today indicates the possibility and even probability, of advance later.

2 We are prepared to offer you extended payment terms [illegible] will not materially interfere with your present money [illegible]

3 [illegible] of the year our workmen can give more [illegible], and attention to an installation than they can later when every hour is crowded—this without added expense [illegible]

4 It immediately increases the value of your property more than the amount invested in the purchase, for having made [illegible] thoroughly modern, it has a higher resale value whether you desire to dispose of it or not.

5 To have solved for the next generation or more this everyday question of the healthful, cleanly, economical, comfortable, and convenient heating of homes will happily relieve your mind of this moral responsibility.

Kindly remember we are suggesting investigation—not request decision—until you are fully satisfied in each and every regard.

It has several distinct advantages that will [illegible] we say without hesitation, compliment your intelligence. We guarantee the service and satisfaction rendered.

Helps Safeguard Health and Brings Immediate Comfort Into Your Home

Your heating system directly influences the health, comfort, well-being, and happiness of those near and dear to you more than any other single factor. Is there a single sound reason why it would be not only good business judgment but complimenting your real manhood and womanhood to correct this personal problem once and for all—and to do so immediately? We are putting forth every possible effort to make the possession of one of these simple and attractive to you. Can there possibly be any profit in recognizing the facts and failing to respond immediately? Then plan to do so, quite without obligation what ever.

Mrs. Rachael Wiley died yesterday morning at an early hour in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Everett, on Lumber City road. Cancer was the direct cause of her death. She was 81 years of age. Her funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock form the Everett home, Rev. Cameron, pastor of the Baptist church officiating. The body was interred in Ferguson cemetery, Undertaker Doverspike having charge of the body.

Word comes from Warren, Ohio, that Irvin Leech had suffered a paralytic stroke shortly after his return home from this place a few weeks ago. During his visit here he was compelled to use crutches, owing to having been run down by an auto and severely injured.

That little saw mill on the north end of Filbert street is tearing out lumber at a great rate for its capacity. The logs are being cut from the Irvin estate tract near the mill and is composed mostly of oak.

Frank Mullen has been appointed census taker of school children in the borough by the school board.

Another frame dwelling house is being built out on Bailey road by Mr. Woodward.

Extensive repairs are being added to the Greenwood hunting camp out on the mountains. Everything is being put in first class shape preparatory to the opening date of the hunting season.

The Bartelli-Dotts garage on Filbert street is receiving the attention of Plumbers Gates and Kettleberger. The old system of steam heat is being taken out and a new outfit substituted, with sufficient power to warm the entire large building.

In conversation with a young man who came here in a New Jersey car a few days ago, he said: "This town is the most peculiar place I have ever visited. There does not seem to be any law here at all governing automobiles. Every car driver turns where he pleases, parks where he pleases, and runs as fast as he pleases. It is surely an easy-going town." And his judgement was not far wrong at that.

NO BABY CLINIC THIS WEEK: ALL GOING IN THE CONTEST

Miss Eliza B. Dill, supervising nurse here, announces that the Baby Clinic will not be held at the Red Cross rooms this coming Thursday because of the need for nurses at the rest room at the County Fair and in addition that their services are required there to conduct the examinations in the Better Babies Contest, one of the most pleasing features of the fair. Mothers should bring their babies from two months to one year of age to the rest room in the fair grounds either Wednesday, Thursday or Friday morning between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock to be entered in the Better Baby Contest.

Scotch "Howlers."

Here are some new "howlers" quoted in the Provincial, the magazine of the Edinburgh Provincial Training college: "Socrates died of an overdose of wedlock." "A marsupial is an animal with a pouch in its stomach, into which it retired when hard pressed." "An epitaph is a short, sarcastic poem." "Beckett met Henry on the altar steps and said, 'What ho, knight.' Henry struck him massacred him."

AN HISTORICAL LANDMARK

The traveler over the "Pine Grove Ridges" will notice on the Mitchell farm almost opposite the "Old Stone House," a beautiful new monument, hewn from our native stone and having on it a bronze plate suitably inscribed, showing this to be the site of the first Post Office in Clearfield County.

This monument, erected by the Susquehanna Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (notice of the unveiling of which will be given later) recalls the early days of our history. Days of no telephones, no telegraph, no automobiles, yea, no rail road. And we are reminded in these times, when our daily newspaper is almost as necessary as our daily food and when messages flying through the air tell of happenings over the entire Globe each hour in the twenty four of the patience, the strength of mind, the nerve that could WAIT displayed by the rugged pioneers of those bygone days. One of these was Alexander Read the first Post Master in our county and ancestor of a number of the members of the Susquehanna Chapter of the D. A. R., who was born in 1752 in Chester County which was then a province of Maryland. He served in the Revolutionary war in the Company of our Captain Smith of the "Flying Camp of Maryland." In 1802 with his wife Jemima, also a native of Maryland he came to this county and located in what is now the Mitchell farm then known as Readsboro. Here in 1813 in his home he established the Post Office of Readsboro. His commission was signed by the then Post Master General Gideon Granger.

The whole Post Office outfit consisted of a homemade wooden cabinet about four feet long, two and one half feet high and one foot deep which is now in possession of Amos Read, a grandson of the Post Master. This cabinet will be on exhibition at the County Fair together with the original commission.

A determining factor in the location of the Post Office was proximity to the stage-route on the Philadelphia and Erie Pike.

Alexander Read died in 1826 at the age of seventy-four years. Many of his descendants, among them a number of great great great grandchildren reside in our community. These include members of both R-E-A-D-S and R-E-E-D-S. The head of the house of Reed came to this locality about the same time as the other family and the two families soon became related through intermarriages.

Shows A Year Of Life In An Hour

"The----- Four Seasons"

A picture calculated to appeal to the imagination is "The Four Seasons," conceived and executed by Charles Urban and Raymond L. Ditmars. It may be called the oddest feature ever produced since the drama is enacted by all the animals and birds and insects of Nature's kingdom, while the skies, woodlands, forests, streams, mountains, plains, brooks, and nests provide the background. That the drama overwhelms one with its awe-inspiring scenes cannot be denied. That it at times soars with the intensity of purpose as the scheme of life is challenged is forcefully emphasized a score of times. Each animal has its peculiar gift of expression. And this orchestra of strange sounds goes on unceasingly through Eternity. Nature's children give vent to their dialogue. Some are powerful enough to be unmindful of the echo.

The frail or tender species may be singing a swan song. For a wolf can hear the shrill call of a doe. And birds trap themselves sometimes. Nature is cruel too. But the animals have an instinct which lessens the cruelty. The will to live causes them to work unceasingly in providing shelter. Spring ushers them into the world. The polly-wog grows into a frog before summer has passed. The chicken leaves its shell. The hatching season has arrived. The warmth of soil and sun brings the woodchuck from his hole. And they thrive and multiply. And autumn discovers the weaker forces preparing to leave the earth life. Thus the scheme goes on about us. Meanswhile the backgrounds are being changed by unseen hands.

SPLENDID NEW AUTOMOBILE HEARSES

Two of the most unique exhibits at the Clearfield county fair, are automobile hearses owned by Fred B. Leavy, the local undertaker, and Undertaker Harry Weber, of Philipsburg These handsome vehicles were manufactured by the Meteor Motor Car Company of Pigua, Ohio, a concern which manufactures hearses and ambulances only.

The new machines arrived in Clearfield yesterday and the local representative of the makers was prevailed upon to place them upon exhibition for the week.

They are without a doubt the handsomest funeral cars to be found in this entire region.

Stinging Power of Bees.

Only queen bees and workers have the power to sting. The drones cannot sting. The stinger is curved, and is carried sheathed. It can be driven into the flesh for a distance of one-twelfth of an inch. After the point enters there is a flow of poison. It is believed that a bee cannot sting a second time because, owing to backward pointing barbs, the stinger is left in the wound. Thus, the bee dies as a result of its vengeance.

Imagination.

This power . . . reveals itself in the balance or reconcilement of opposite or discordant qualities: of sameness, with difference; of the general, with the concrete; the idea with the image; the individual with the representative, the sense of novelty and freshness with old and familiar objects; a more than usual state of emotion with more than usual order; judgment ever awake and steady self-possession with enthusiasm and feeling profound or vehement.—Coleridge.

April Fooling Is Old Custom.

No satisfactory origin has been assigned to April Fool's day. The custom of hoodwinking people at this time is traced by some to the ancient Kuh festival of India, observed March 31. On this day the Hindus play harmless pranks on one another, a practice dating back to ancient times.

"Come Off."

This bit of American slang, used imperatively and meaning "desist" or "cease," is relatively new to modern use. It is startling, therefore, to find that it occurs in Chaucer's "Parliament of Fowles" in exactly the modern sense. The birds grow tired of listening to a long discussion among the young eagles; and so at last: "'Come off!' they cryde, 'alas! you will us shende!'"

Ask the Wife.

Why is it that some men will take counsel with everybody else sooner than they will with their wives? If they would go to her first and do as she advises, there would be fewer men down on their luck at the present time. —Farm Life.

A SWEET LITTLE BABY BOY

Makes a Bright Spot in Every Home. A Comfort in Years to Come

Park Rapids, Minnesota.—"I have taken your medicine — Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound — when I was a girl for pains and before and after my marriage. I now have a sweet little baby boy and will send you his picture if you wish to publish it. My sisters also take your medicine and find it a great help, and I recommend it to those who suffer before their babies are born." — Mrs. Wm. Johnson, Box 155, Park Rapids, Minn.

To marry and arrive at middle age without children is a great disappointment to many women. Think of the joy and comfort other women have in their children as they grow older.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped to bring great happiness to many families by restoring women to health. Often the childless home is due to a run down condition of the wife, which may be helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It brought health and happiness into the home of Mrs. Johnson. "Red" Blood Corpuscles.

So-called "red" blood corpuscles are in reality straw color when seen singly, but when seen in masses they appear red and do give the blood its red color, bright red when full of oxygen—dark red, almost purple, when deprived of their oxygen, through tissue absorption.

Beauty of Texture Distinguishes the New Fall Woolens

Visit our Woolen Department next time you are downtown. The new Fall Woolens are on display and we think they are wonderful—so will you when you see them, we feel quite certain. Piquetine, Kasha, Poiret Twill and Ribbed Velours seem to evolve themselves in your mind's eye into smart tailored frocks and suits. And you can just picture yourself strolling down the avenue in a stunning coat of one of the soft snappy materials, Fashona Poloma, and Gerona for instance.

WOOL EPONGE is very popular this season. We are showing this new wool material in tan, navy, copen and brown.

All the other wanted staple wool materials, such as serges, poiret twill, gaberdines, wool crepes, etc., are here at very reasonable prices.

THE CHAMELEON GINGHAM

Gingham is the chameleon of the fabric world—everything that it comes into contact with it is useful for. Besides making your crisp Housedresses and Aprons and your daughter's perky School Frocks, it will go into your breakfast room and assume the most charming air when used as Draperies with Breakfast Set to match. Then it is perfectly willing to climb the stairs to become cozy Draperies for your bedroom with accompanying Bed Spread and Dresser Scarf—or to journey down the hall to the nursery and play the same cheerful part, perhaps making some squashy Cushions as well.

27-inch wide Ginghams in plaids, checks and plain colors. A big assortment to choose from at, yard 25c

32-inch wide Dress Ginghams in domestic and imported qualities, wonderful choicing of plain colors, dainty checks and plaids, priced at, yard, 35c, 45c, 59c, 75c

You Are Living in the Present

When the Science of Optics is Able to Preserve Your Eyesight and Health

IN a recent Saturday Evening Post an advertisement of Wellsworth Glasses tells how the greatest optical specialists of England last year turned to America for a scientist to describe the latest progress in optics. It will pay you to find this advertisement and read it. It says in part:

"An eyesight specialist in your town can look into your eye and see the meeting point of light and mind. He can measure the distortion of light rays in an imperfect eye. Then he is able to relieve the strain in the eyes and stop the drain on the energy of the mind by guiding the light waves with eyeglass lenses of delicate curvature."

If you lived in any time but the present no one could blame you if you waited until your eyes gave you serious trouble before having them examined.

1. Failing eyesight will drive you, sooner or later, to consult an eyesight specialist.

2. Certain eye troubles which haven't yet affected your clear vision will force you sooner or later to see a specialist. Such eye troubles are pain in the eyes, burning, itching, and a feeling of eye strain.

3. Sooner or later, troubles caused by your eyes, such as headaches, nervousness, general fatigue, nausea, irritability and indigestion may insist on your consulting us. Don't neglect such symptoms of eye trouble.
